SPECIAL COLLECTION FOR SALE: DON MARQUIS MANUSCRIPTS

Don Marquis: Journalist, poet, author, essayist, playwright.

We offer one of the most amazing collections ever put on the open market concerning a known author. This collection consists of the working manuscripts of Don Marquis through every phase of his long and varied career. There are a total of several thousand pages of typescript and holograph material, including the working drafts of several books and plays, many poems and prefaces, stories and articles, and several chapters of his unfinished 'ego-biography.' Much of this material is unpublished.

The most exciting part of this collection is that most of the material has extensive corrections running throughout -- a veritable goldmine of insight into the workings of creative thought. Many of the short stories are written out by hand, corrected, re-written or typed, corrected again, and finally typed for publication, providing us with three complete yet varying versions of the same theme.

A more detailed account of this collection is available. It is highly recommended, however, that this material be seen first hand and shipment on approval should be requested.

Price: $12,500

SPECIAL OFFER: JOURNAL OF THE AMERICAN SOCIETY FOR PSYCHIC RESEARCH.

We offer a most unusual run of this Psychic Research Journal, from its beginning in 1906 through 42 years to 1948, Vol I to Volume 43; a broken run of almost 300 issues of the Journal and Proceedings, some numbers almost 2" thick, and all containing enormous research into mediums, ESP, spiritualists, telekinesis, and every other phase of psychic research. This scholarly journal was produced and written mostly by professors and professional men, with such guest writers as Arthur Conan Doyle. There are several sets available. $200 each set.

We also have a large group of books, many copies of about 10 different titles, published by this society and its offshoot, the Boston Society for Psychical Research. Please request this list.

SPECIAL COLLECTION FOR SALE: UGANDA -- BISHOP A. R. TUCKER

An important collection of correspondence relating to the life and work of Bishop Alfred Robert Tucker, the first Bishop of Uganda. Mostly written from 1894 - 1914, these handwritten letters are written from Uganda and Kenya, mainly to his friend, Mrs. Mary Carus-Wilson. They form a fascinating insight into the work of the man most instrumental in the progress of education and the Church in Uganda. There is a vast amount of information on the Bishop's problems and achievements, and detailed accounts of a 'sleeping sickness' hospital destroyed by one of the patients; the destruction of his cathedral; his educational programs and building of schools; a journey to the Nile Valley; his thwarted plans for a university in Central Africa; proposals to form a Ugandan Association; question of the nationality of freed slaves; the validity of native marriages; and other journeys, events and problems.

This collection consists of about 140 letters to Mrs Carus-Wilson, all in excellent condition, easily readable, and each of some length. There are other letters he wrote to various people in England and elsewhere, collected by Mrs. Carus-Wilson for a proposed biography of Bishop Tucker, but apparently all of these letters are unpublished. The third part of this collection consists of about 51 letters dated 1894-1914, written to Mrs. Carus-Wilson in answer to her request for recollections and biographical information about Bishop Tucker, from friends and missionaries who knew and worked with him.

The historical importance of these letters cannot be over-emphasized. For twenty years, Bishop Tucker molded and developed Uganda and its people, and although he published a book in 1908, "Eighteen Years in Uganda and East Africa," and illustrated it himself (he was a known artist in England), the letters in this collection are a much more personal and illuminative history of his work in Africa than anything presviously seen.

COLLECTIONS OF MATERIAL

1. KENNEDY FAMILY -- PRESIDENT JOHN F. and ROBERT. Approximately 200 books and almost 100 magazines about the Kennedy family; their careers, analyses of policies, assassinations and after-effects. $700

2. PAUL ROBESON AT PEEKSKILL. Unique collection of manuscript material pertaining to the riot at a concert in 1949. These papers are the actual Westchester County police files on the case, describing in stark detail the riotous events, including: reports, duty rosters, testimony, maps, letters of witnesses, and much more, The group comprises about 300 pages, typed and handwritten. $900

3. SIR WALTER SCOTT. Group of 15 first editions of the Waverly Novels, in 48 volumes uniformly bound in ½ leather, 1816 - 1829. A rare assemblage, mostly in first state, some second state, as specified in Worthington. $700

4. FIRE DEPARTMENT JOURNALS. Two manuscript journal books from the New York City Fire Department, 1871 and 1880. Almost 1000 pages detailing fires; addresses, hoses used, men present, technical data, nozzles used, etc. $225

5. WATER TOWERS - COLLAPSE AND FAILURE. An unusual subject, gathered from 1890 - 1920 by the leading expert in the field, an Illinois professor and author of many articles and pamphlets on the subject. These extensive manuscript papers, several hundred documents and letters, comprise his working notes from many parts of the country, and offer many examples of the structural failure of stand-pipes and water towers before proper engineering eliminated such disasters. Dozens of files filled with first hand reports. $550

6. GERMAN PAMPHLETS. Extensive collection of printed pamphlets, mostly 1900-1950, mostly in German. There are about 1300 items, duplicates culled from the great Hoover Institute at Stanford, offering a vast description of Germany from World War I, through the forming of the Third Reich and into World War II and its aftermath. Many subjects are represented,such as politics, military, and economics. A list of this collection is available. $1500

7. CHANNING POLLACK. Small collection of books and letters by this author, dramatist, critic and radio personality. 97 TLs's to Alfred Sutro, 1940's, reveal very personal and intimate details of his life and work; 14 books by Pollack, all presentation copies to Sutro; and a small group of ephemera by and about him. The letters are unpublished and give great insight into Pollack's later life and work. $900

8. GERMAN SPY WWI -- CAPTAIN FRANCIS VON RINTELEN. Considerable collection of 20 long letters and 20 postcards, all hand-written from England in 1930's and 1940's, concerning his rather quiet retirement, as lecturer and author. $150

SPECIAL PRE-PUBLICATION OFFER:

EARLY COLONIAL NEWSPAPERS AND THEIR PRINTERS, 1715 - 1783.
by Charles and Lois Apfelbaum, Appletree Press.

This very large, bound book will reproduce 50 actual colonial newspapers in their entirety, each from 2 to 8 pages, while discussing the history and career of each printer and his newspaper. Newspapers from many cities in the colonies are represented, with a variety of politics ranging from flaming revolutionaries to loyal Tories to men who vaccilated with the coming of each army. Many women printers are also represented.

This book is an important research tool for every library and historian. Colonial newspapers are virtually inaccessable for study, except in the rare book rooms of major universities and under the most difficult of conditions. Here, for the first time, they may be seen complete and in full size, without fear of damaging fragile material, or theft of rare Americana.

Publication date is scheduled for the Fall of 1979. Pre-publication price is $65, after publication $85.

Send no money. To reserve your copies, just write and indicate your desire and the number of copies needed. Early requests will allow us to estimate production, and we offer this special pre-publication price of $65 only to those institutions who contact us in advance.

This huge volume, approximately 11" x 17", will be expertly printed and sturdily bound. Facsimile reproduction will allow easy readability of all newspapers.

Please contact us as soon as possible to indicate your pre-order. Shipping if prepaid. Satisfaction is guaranteed.
